

In Nursery we want to develop the strength in our fingers. This is to help us ready for our writing. We call this "funky fingers". You can google this to see what ideas there are at home. Here are some ideas for home learning funky fingers:

