NSPCC National Number Day has been a great success today. The children have enjoyed lots of number based activities throughout the day and their outfits have looked fantastic. Please see our Twitter feed for a snapshot of what we have been up to. Please use the link below to make a donation, if you can: So far we have raised £79 which we thank you for your support.

World Book Day

On Thursday, 3rd March we will be celebrating World Book Day by dressing up as a character from a book. The children will enjoy lots of reading activities throughout the day and we will be working together to improve our school library. Please do not feel pressured to buy expensive costumes-contact a member of staff for cheap alternative ideas.

Inappropriate Online Content

Please be aware that the You Tube clip 'Huggy Wuggy' contains disturbing images and content that is not appropriate for children within our school, despite it's name and cartoon image seeming innocent. During Safer Internet Day next Tuesday we will discuss with the children how they can keep themselves safe online.
