

HOW A COMPUTING UNIT SHOULD LOOK...

Each Computing unit consists of six lessons that teach necessary components.

The final lesson of the unit makes use of the components to build a composite piece of work/product/application.

